Kamilla advises primarily on bankruptcy and insolvency law and is also engaged in mortgage law and financial issues, typically in relation to insolvency.

Kamilla has many years of experience in bankruptcy estate administration and restructuring of insolvent/distressed businesses within different sectors, especially the financial, real-estate, industrial and groceries sectors.

She is highly experienced in guiding insolvent businesses through insolvent operating scenarios, ensuring that all tasks are solved optimally with due regard to the business processes and the relevant rules. She strives to safeguard the financial and commercial interests while at the same time focusing on costs.

Drawing on her many years of experience in the legal profession, Kamilla takes both legal and practical issues into account when advising entities like banks or businesses whose viability may be at stake.

Kamilla always aims at providing advice that legally, commercially and practically is tailored to the client's specific challenges, focusing on solutions that work in practice.

In addition, Kamilla is Kromann Reumert's knowledge ambassador in the field of insolvency law. Hence, she is responsible for strengthening the internal and external sharing of knowledge about that practice area and for optimising internal processes and automation where relevant.
