

Susanne Schjølin Larsen

Partner (Copenhagen)

Susanne Schjølin Larsen specialises in financial regulation and banking and finance law, including derivative transactions in the financial and energy sectors. Susanne is member of the team that heads Kromann Reumert's financial services practice group.

She advises financial and other businesses and institutions on derivatives and collateralization, including standard framework agreements such as the ISDA Master Agreement, the Global Master Repurchase Agreement (repo agreements) and the EFET General Agreement, master netting agreements, structured derivatives, derivatives clearing and other obligations under the European Market Infrastructure Regulation (EMIR). Susanne also offers advice on financial regulation and REMIT and on corporate funding in general.

Susanne has many years' experience in relation to derivatives and negotiates a large number of repo and derivatives master agreements and clearing agreements on an ongoing basis. She follows market trends closely, including the local and international regulation.
