

Frederik Jacob Estrup

Partner (Copenhagen)

Frederik Jacob Estrup specialises in business transfers and investments (M&A), capital market law, and company and foundation law and has a particular focus on private equity funds.

Frederik assists clients in both Denmark and abroad in connection with their M&A activities. Over the years, he has guided Danish and foreign private equity funds through complex investments and restructurings.

Frederik also has detailed knowledge of incentive programmes, W&I insurance and regulation of shareholder issues. In addition, he has assisted in numerous transfers of software companies.

Frederik always seeks to offer clients to-the-point advice, focusing not only on their legal, but also on their commercial interests.

Frederik is also Kromann Reumert's knowledge ambassador in the field of M&A. As such, he is responsible for providing M&A training to our assistant and junior attorneys.
